The cultural programme opened with a soulful performance by Garima, whose graceful rendering of “Padmanabha Narayana” set a serene and devotional tone for the evening, beautifully drawing the audience into the spirit of the celebration. This was followed by a vibrant and energetic Kawwali presentation that became one of the most engaging highlights of the programme. The cultural segment concluded with performances by other participants, who contributed dance, music, and artistic presentations—making the programme diverse, colourful, and memorable. Altogether, the cultural session lasted about 1 hour and 15 minutes, leaving a lasting impression on the hearts of attendees.

As the formal programme drew to a close, Dr. Nitin Bansod delivered a sincere, eloquent, and heartfelt Vote of Thanks that beautifully encapsulated the spirit of the entire evening. With deep appreciation, he acknowledged the dignitaries for gracing the event, the alumni for their enthusiastic participation, the teachers for their unwavering dedication, and the student volunteers whose tireless efforts ensured flawless coordination at every stage.
