National Service Scheme (NSS) -2023- 24

The National Service Scheme, commonly known as NSS, is a youth-focused voluntary service program in India. It was launched in 1969 with the primary objective of developing the personality and character of the youth through community service. NSS is a central government-sponsored scheme under the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports. NSS is voluntary in nature, and it encourages students from educational institutions to actively participate in various community service activities. It work with the Motto "Not Me, But You," which reflects the essence of selfless service and community welfare.

NSS aims at fostering a sense of social responsibility and overall personality development among the youth. It engages students in various social service activities, contributing to community development and nation-building. It provides students with opportunities to understand the community's needs and challenges and work towards finding sustainable solutions.

NSS activities include various programs such as cleanliness drives, tree plantation, blood donation camps, health awareness campaigns, adult education initiatives, and disaster management programs. NSS has been instrumental in shaping responsible and socially conscious citizens by instilling values of empathy, compassion, and service among the youth. It continues to be one of the largest and most impactful youth volunteer programs in the country. It plays a crucial role in promoting national integration and communal harmony by bringing together students from diverse backgrounds. Students actively participating in NSS earn credits, and the program is often included as part of the academic curriculum.
